There are about 10 foot-bridges across streams for which estimates prepared and there will be many more yet to be investigated where the soil is slushy and piles have to be driven. For the foot bridge at Chitrap, which is in progress now, the contractor who is a villager having no experience of executing such work is using a very light hammer for driving the piles which have to be driven for a depth of 20 feet in the soil.

In as much as the poor villagers are executing the work, they cannot afford to purchase a suitable Derrick, pulleys and the Monkey hammer necessary for the purpose and also there are about ten works where piles driving is necessary, I request that the following materials may kindly be purchased by the Community Project funds and may be utilized for works as and when required.

During my last visit there I saw an occasion to see the mechanism used for driving pits into the earth. It was found that the man executing the job could not produced more than 1 cc ten hundreds. This means enormous delay in the first part of the work. I suggested that the P.E.O. may apply and obtain sanction for a few hundreds which can drive down pits at a greater speed this equipmt will quicken the pace of work and the above the equipmt maybe sanctioned. The P.E.O. can reduce the estimates to some extent if the dept supplies the entire apparatus. He may be asked to look into this aspect and reduce the cost of estimates in future where dept. workers etc can be used
